Imma thank you J&J.

To:

I'm ok being your diversity plan;

It is my mode of existence: It is my mode of insistence

There is the cityplan under my belt of explosives;

It is my mode of modification: It is my mode of fornication

Defamation of American flag: Defecation of unidentifiable flag

An unidentifiable body surfaces on the level of cheap alliteration

Please do not litter; be a good noncitizen

Please use the container provided; be a good conartist

Is it ok that I am your diversity case? Is it ok that I am your basket case?

Is it tolerable that I am your varsity case? Is it permissible that I am your it-girl showcase?

You need to pardon my perfection crime:

Is it okay I'm in your suitcase? Is it ok I'm your cold case?

I had to be in your file case before I could go cold turkey

b/c my concealer stopped working on its case

There are problematic concerns for my modular case

Is it okay that I'm your diversity case?

Is it okay that I'm your assertion case?

I'll let my fever fall asleep till my urge to reload kicks in

My belly is warm and I am your forensic case

RE:

Give me straight:

Nobody wants to hear your tangled moan;

Give it to me, Gimmick straight:

Nobody can commiserate your commingled language;

My dear conartists:

It is necessary to persevere the confederate currency against the counterfeits;

Contrary to our common faith, the strawberry preserve stretches with the consistency of the lump of blood

Your convergence is our convenience

Your mergence is our emergency

Give me straight: Give it to me.

Mind your own baloney business

You bombarded my embassy with your allergic reaction

it was unnecessary for you to void my foreign agency just because it contained peanuts;

Reduced to ambassadorial sizzles with desired consistency, your immunity is your feigned diplomacy. Despite the deploring of deflowered agencies, your stickyfingers won't stop rummaging through the rubbles of my discolored ancestry. Nobody knows what's in that brown sauce. No body is left in the sizzle. Potentially processed in the facility that also processes nuts, a baby cries out under the rubbles. In a nutshell, your overbearing jealousy is rapidly boiling me down to the toxic agent that you were once concerned with; it might be ok to be involved with the corrupting agent once or twice; you said; it builds your character & build your immunity. Don't mind the traffic buildup: It's just my free radicals having a field day; free rascals buildup on field day. I hear a baby cry in the laundry basket under the pile of bloody underwears. Blood buildup is hard to remove; Boiling water only makes the stain set in. Baby, baby, where you at? Don't end your sentence with preposition! My enzymic activity will take care of that. My bulimic confession will take care of that. are you gonna eat that, questioned the thumbsucking babbling probability of necrotic regression. my fetal position is questionably fashionable and I don't give a flying fuck what you think. The flight was delayed by fourteen centuries due to the various outbreak of dislocated arms. I regret the inconvenience that I caused you, but you may need to swallow it.

Imma single ready to commingle

Epilogue: I found a poem under the rug that was foreign benign malign and forlorn:

cute as a button; weak like the bee's knee;

pull my leg& break your leg.

my kneebiter promqueen would like to conclude your vasectomy:

bite the curb, cut the carb;

& thy kingdom cum, thy will be done.

your synergistic globalization is my conglomerate prostitution:

the traffick jammed my knees under your arms;

&you may kiss your mailorderbride for a second thought.

The picture of yours that I framed claims its innocence;

the incense in your return crate smells burnt crème brulee;

The ballet parking calls for a lapdog cremation;

& in the backstage another dog bites the dust.

I pull this suicide out of my ass

Dear Diary, mommy says no pink frosting

Dear Diary, Dirty Sanchez is my favorite

Dear Diary, Bestiality isn't my bestman award;

a ward of Japan votes for such untoward

copulation of corporeal repugnancy that involves pugs and fugly penises;

& there is a reason American embassy doesn't offer refugee runts much "relief" or "orgasm" or "personal space" other than slits on the wrists that are more fashionable than cunts made out of cuts; they can't run far from this cock-a-doodle-doo; & this should be considered animal cruelty; yes sir, even mongrel deserves more than goo for dinner; mongoloids may do their morbid things in their mangled home, but no sir, mangy dogs deserve better than maneating Mongolian beef party back in the oriental carpet cleaning service parking lot, which mommy subscribes as a loyal customer/a submissive "client"...

Dear Diary, the bareback sugarcookies mommy bought me may tempt me to transgress

But Bestiality ain't gonna be my bestman party;

My weddingcake will have pink frostings in its cavity;

My premarital creampie will not involve animal ingredients...

Dear Diary, my dirty pink is better than your dirty blonde

Dear Mommy, go fuck yourself with your poodle caboodles

Dear Pullout method, Dear machismo, Dear masochism that involves caca,

Dear masculinity...

Save me from the puppy pink; Save me from the piggybag-riding

Dear matricide, Dear arsenide, Dear suicide..

Good-bye, O good-bye...
